

I'M OMNIPRESENT¹

HMMM... THIS SEEMS FAMILIAR! A NOUN IS A NAMING WORD.

A NOUN IS ANY WORD THAT REPRESENTS A PERSON, PLACE, OBJECT OR ANIMAL (INCLUDING BIRDS, FISH AND INSECTS).

Ritika, poet, gardener, minister

airport, market,
garage, Orissa

moth², shark, parrot, bear

medal, glue, thread, newspaper

Look at these balloons! Each balloon represents one category of nouns. A list of nouns is given below. Place each noun in the correct category.

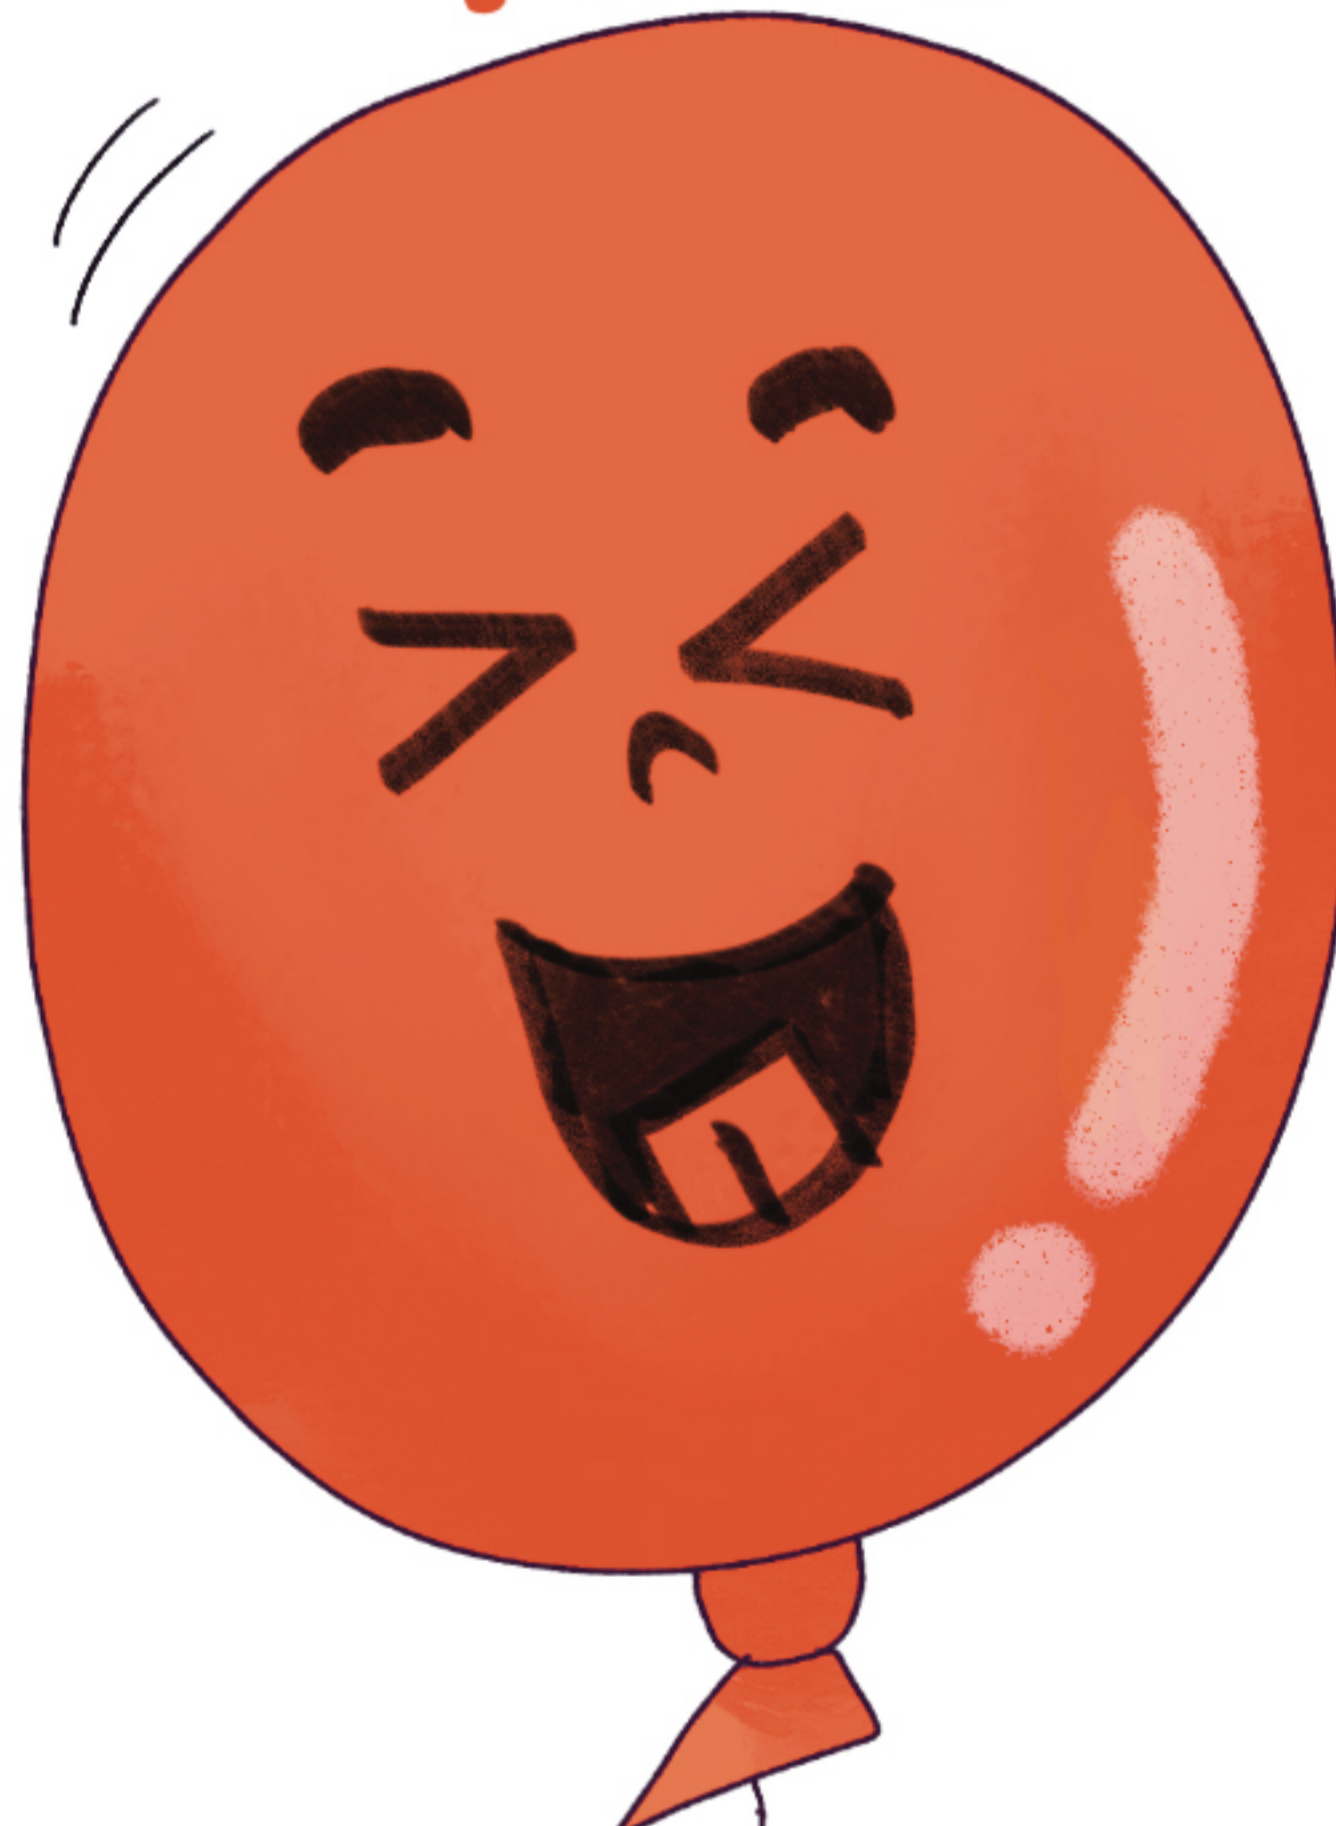

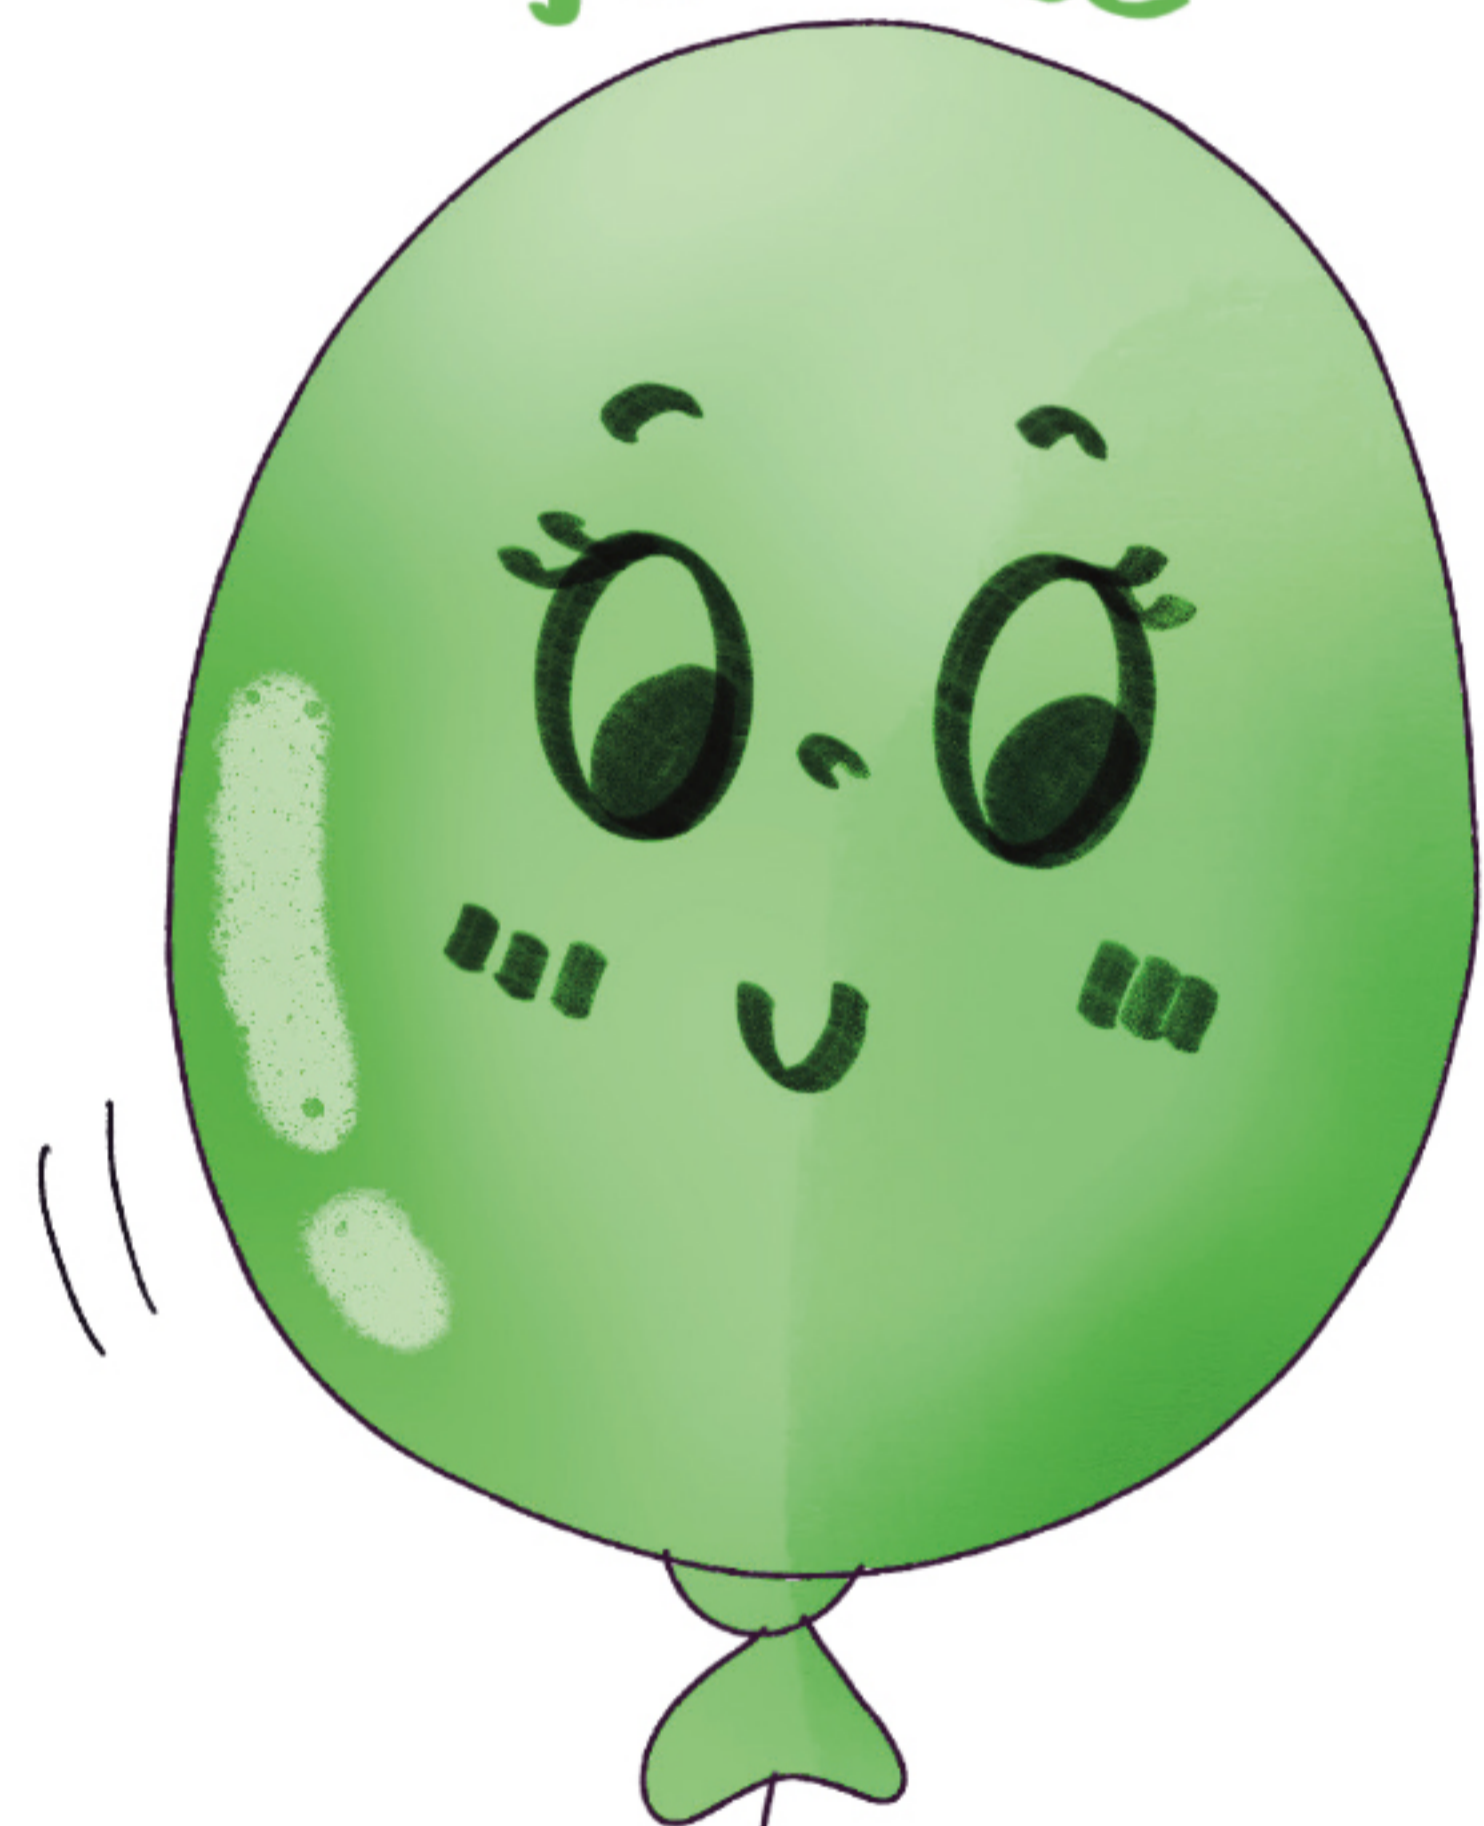

wheel . sparrow . Coimbatore . desktop . student . chipmunk . playground acrobat³ . classroom . bunny . wasp . pianist . Sun . mall . racquet . Riya

PEOPLE

PLACE

ANIMAL

THING

Riya

A TRIP AROUND INDIA

Given below is a passage about our country, India. Read the passage and encircle the proper nouns.

India is a country rich in diversity⁵, with many different people of many different cultures. Take a trip around India, and you will hear people speak various different languages, like Hindi, Marathi, Bodo, Gujarati, Mizo, Bengali, Telugu, and so many more! You will come across iconic⁶ wonders of India such as the Taj Mahal in Uttar Pradesh, the Rann of Kachchh in Gujarat, the Sun Temple in Odisha, and the Ajanta Caves in Maharashtra. On this trip, you will encounter⁷ many dance forms practised across the country, such as, Bharatnatyam of Tamil Nadu, Kuchipudi of Andhra Pradesh, Bhangra of Punjab and Kathakali of Kerala. No matter where you are, you'll find people joyfully celebrating various festivals like Diwali, Lohri, Eid, Navroz, Christmas and Pongal. People from different parts of India might look different, talk different, and eat different food, but they are all Indian nevertheless⁸.

PARK YOUR NOUNS

Complete the conversation between Arun and Simi using the nouns given. Then, mention whether it is a proper noun (P) or a common noun (C).

home . ~~Simi~~ . birds . snail . Sunday . Nehru Street flowers . park . parents . City Park . place . Math

Hi Simi (P), look what I have in my hands!

Wow! Such a pretty . Where did you get it?

Yesterday, I went to the with my parents.

I found it while we were returning .

What else did you see in the ?

I saw various and lovely . I also met our teacher there.

It sounds like a nice . Where is it?

It is opposite VR Stadium on . Why don't you ask your to take you there?

Share your experience with me once you've been there. I got to go now, bye!

Okay! I will ask them if we can go there next .

Sure!

BE KIND TO ANIMALS

Complete the given passage with the plural form of nouns given in the brackets.

We enjoy riding on elephants (elephant). They are trained to carry heavy loads and (person) on their (back). The (baby) of wild elephants are separated from their (mother). Then, they are tied between two tree (trunk) where they can't move. They are tied with chains and (harness)¹⁷. They are sometimes beaten with a bullhook.

Out of fear, hunger and thirst, the (calf) stop opposing to free themselves. Slowly and subsequently¹⁸, they give up due to the constant training (process). Over the (century), elephants have been trained and tamed¹⁹ by (person). The training processes are very harmful and that's why now there is a ban on using (animal) in circus.

KNOW MORE! ELEPHANTS ARE EXTREMELY INTELLIGENT ANIMALS. THEY ARE ABLE TO REMEMBER AND RECOGNISE EVERY MEMBER OF THEIR HERD FOR YEARS AND YEARS!

COUNT-ER ATTACK

Given below are some countable nouns. Write 'a' or 'an' only before the singular countable nouns. Mark the others with a cross (X).

video

otter

massage

men

game

stamp

uncle

bicycle shoes

ant

clothes

pill

Match the following uncountable nouns to their respective companions.

A can of

A slice of

A glass of

A tube of

A tub of

A loaf of

Toothpaste

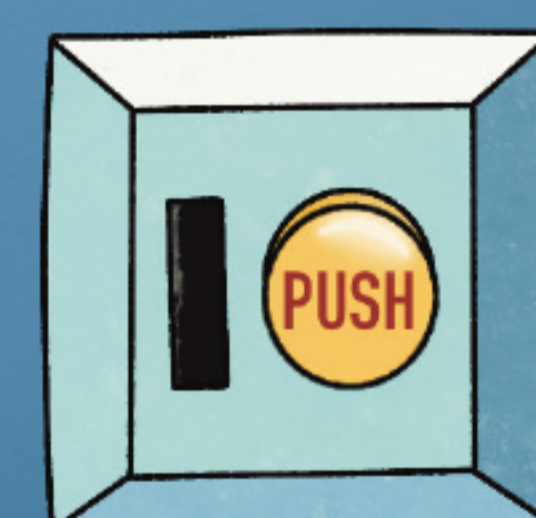

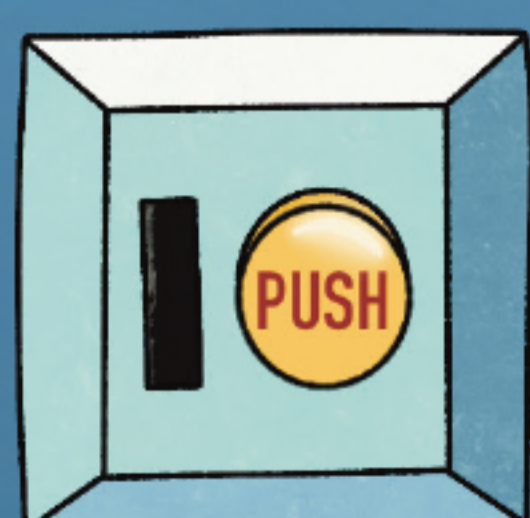

Butter

Juice

Pizza

Bread

Milk

SHELF LIFE

Manav's shelf is full of nouns but he's not able to count them! Let's teach him about uncountable nouns.

Choose the appropriate companion for the following uncountable nouns.

a bar of . a shower of . a jar of . a piece of . a bar of a loaf of . a glass of . a bowl of . a spoonful of a

a shower of rain

b jam

c

water

d

bread

e soap

f

cake

g

chocolate

h

honey

i

sugar

HIDE AND SEEK

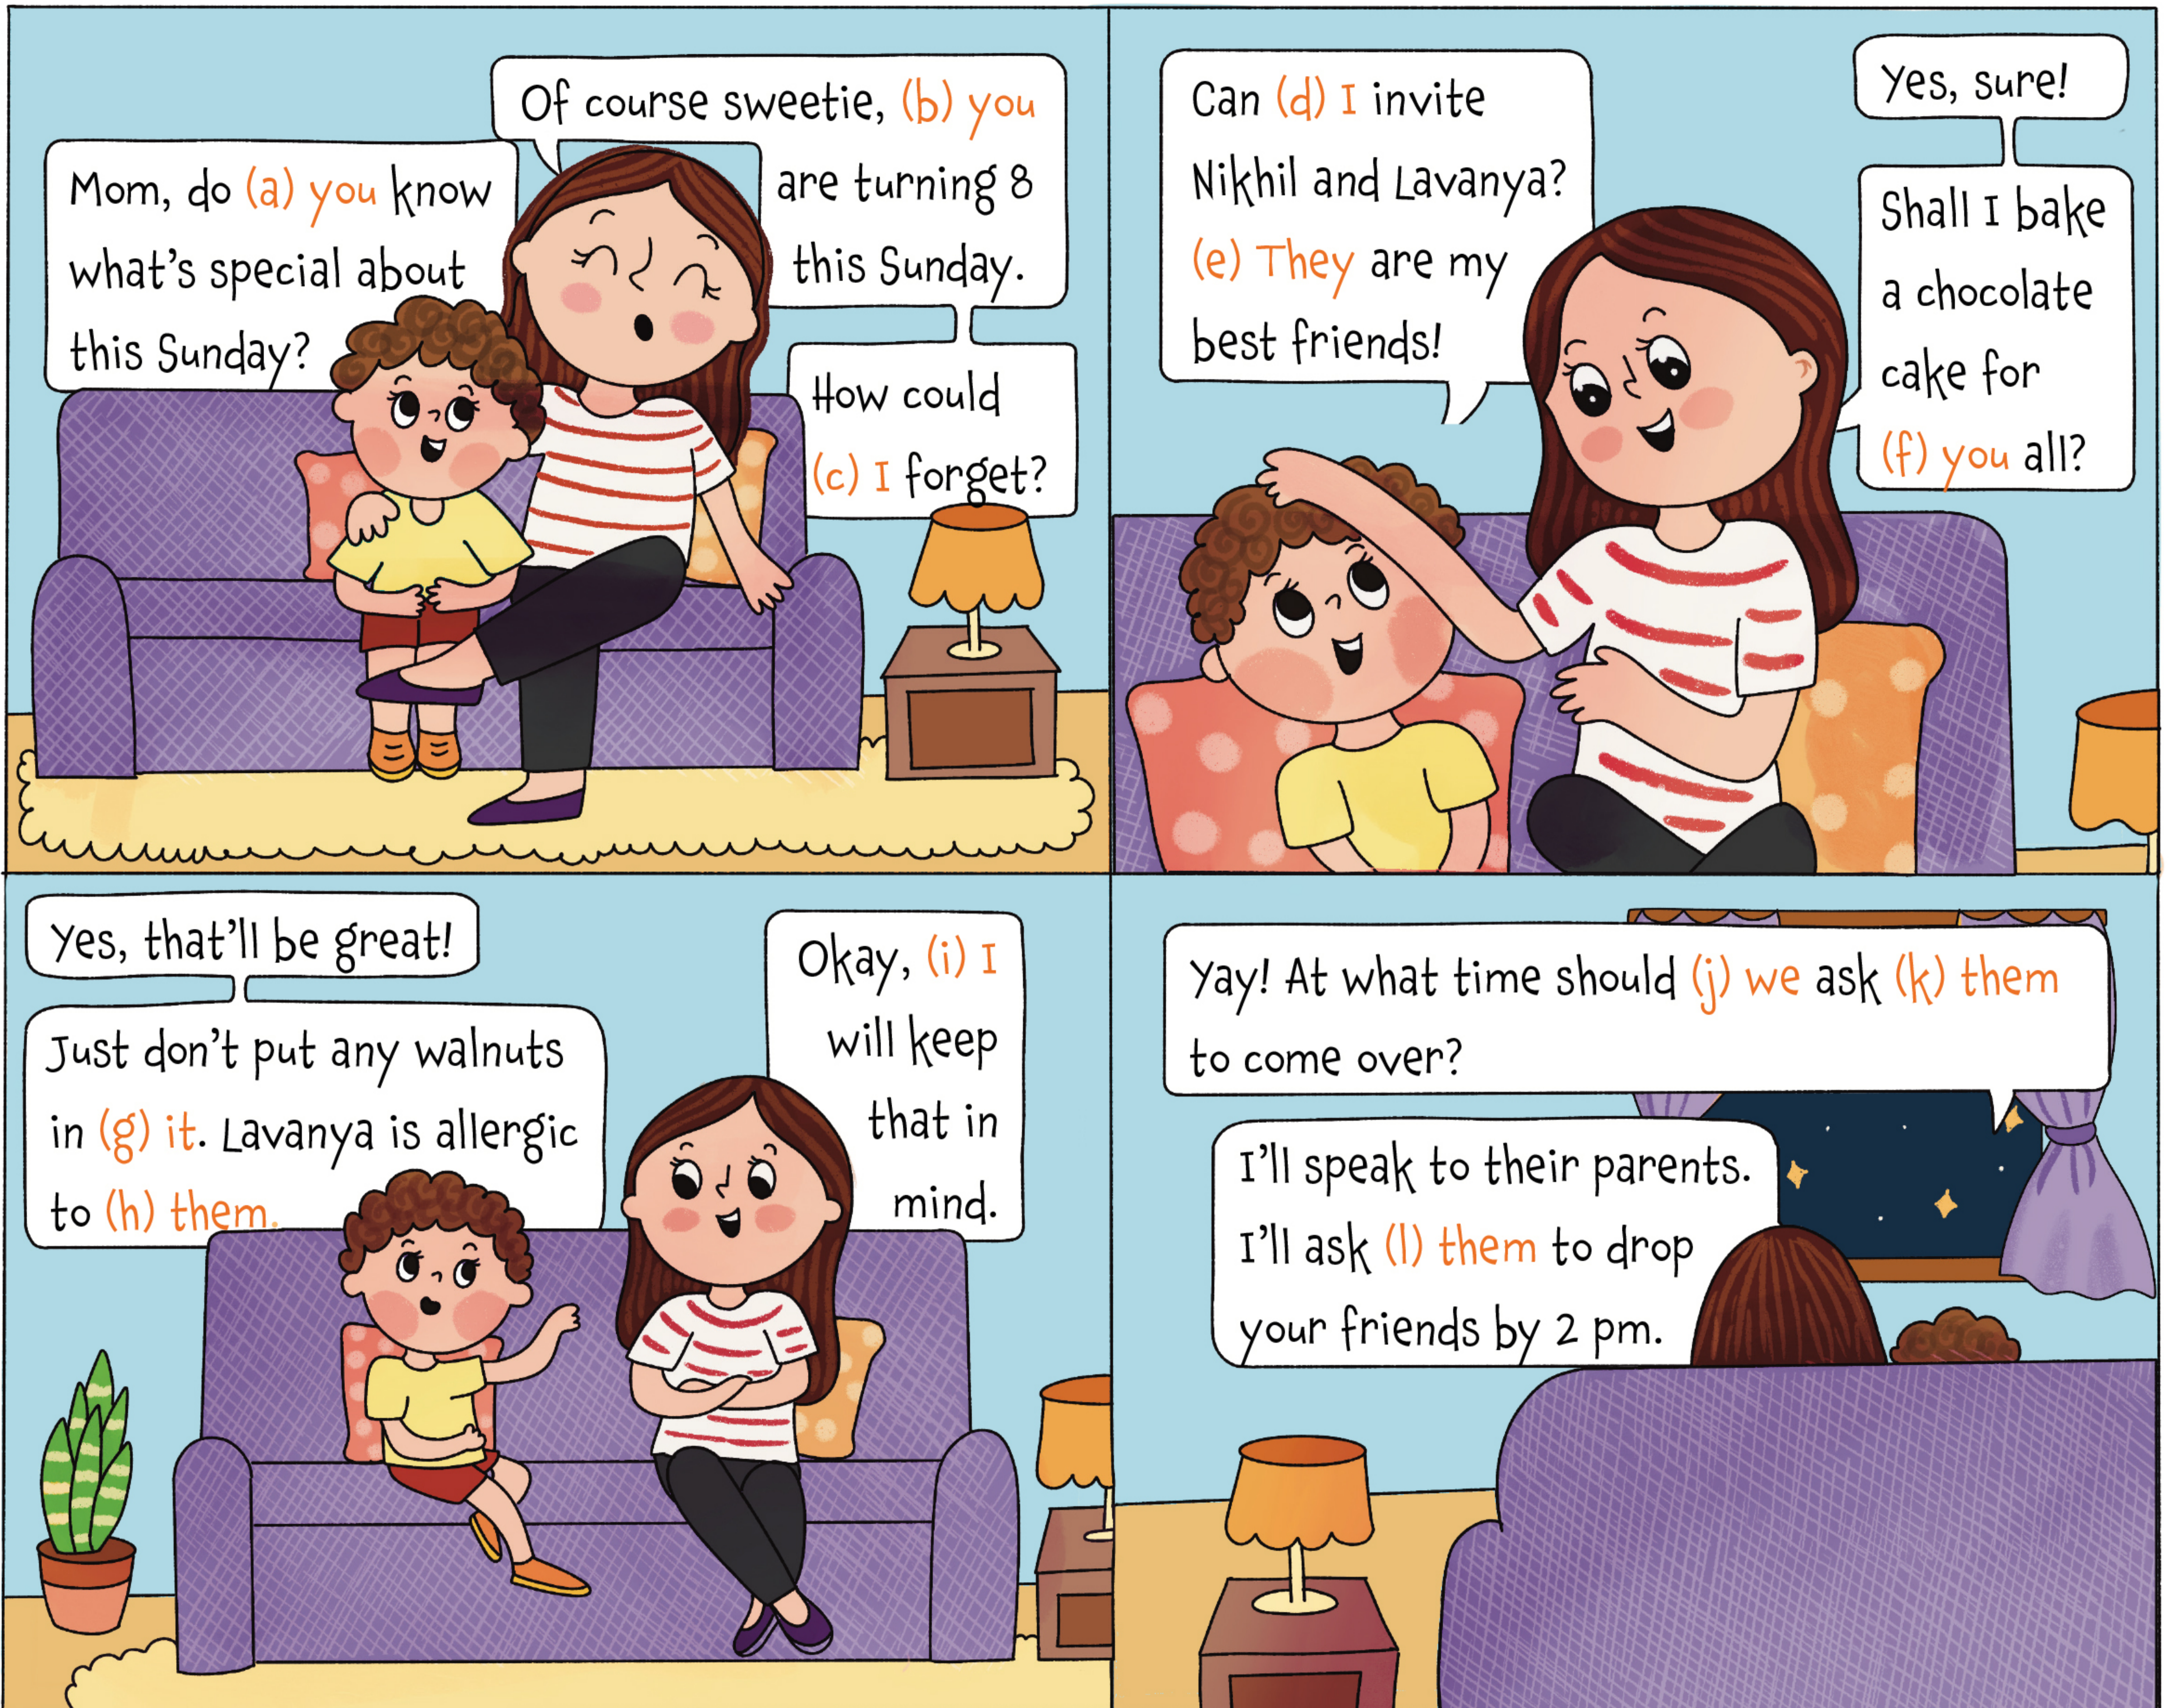

Some collective nouns are hidden in the word-search given below. Look for them and write them next to their correct match.

- | | |
|--|--|
| a a <input type="text" value="set"/> of tools | g a <input type="text"/> of ships |
| b a <input type="text"/> of hockey players | h a <input type="text"/> of keys |
| c a <input type="text"/> of files | i a <input type="text"/> of kittens |
| d a <input type="text"/> of lion | j a <input type="text"/> of elephants |
| e a <input type="text"/> of robbers | k a <input type="text"/> of camels |
| f a <input type="text"/> of trees | l a <input type="text"/> of monkeys |

WHAT'S THE PLAN?

Read the given dialogue between Ansh and his mother.

Determine the nouns to which the labelled pronouns refer.

a	Ansh's mother	e		i
b		f		j
c		g		k
d		h		l

HOW DO YOU FEEL?

Answer the following using appropriate pronouns.

Express your feelings! There are no right or wrong answers here.

a How do you feel about online schooling?

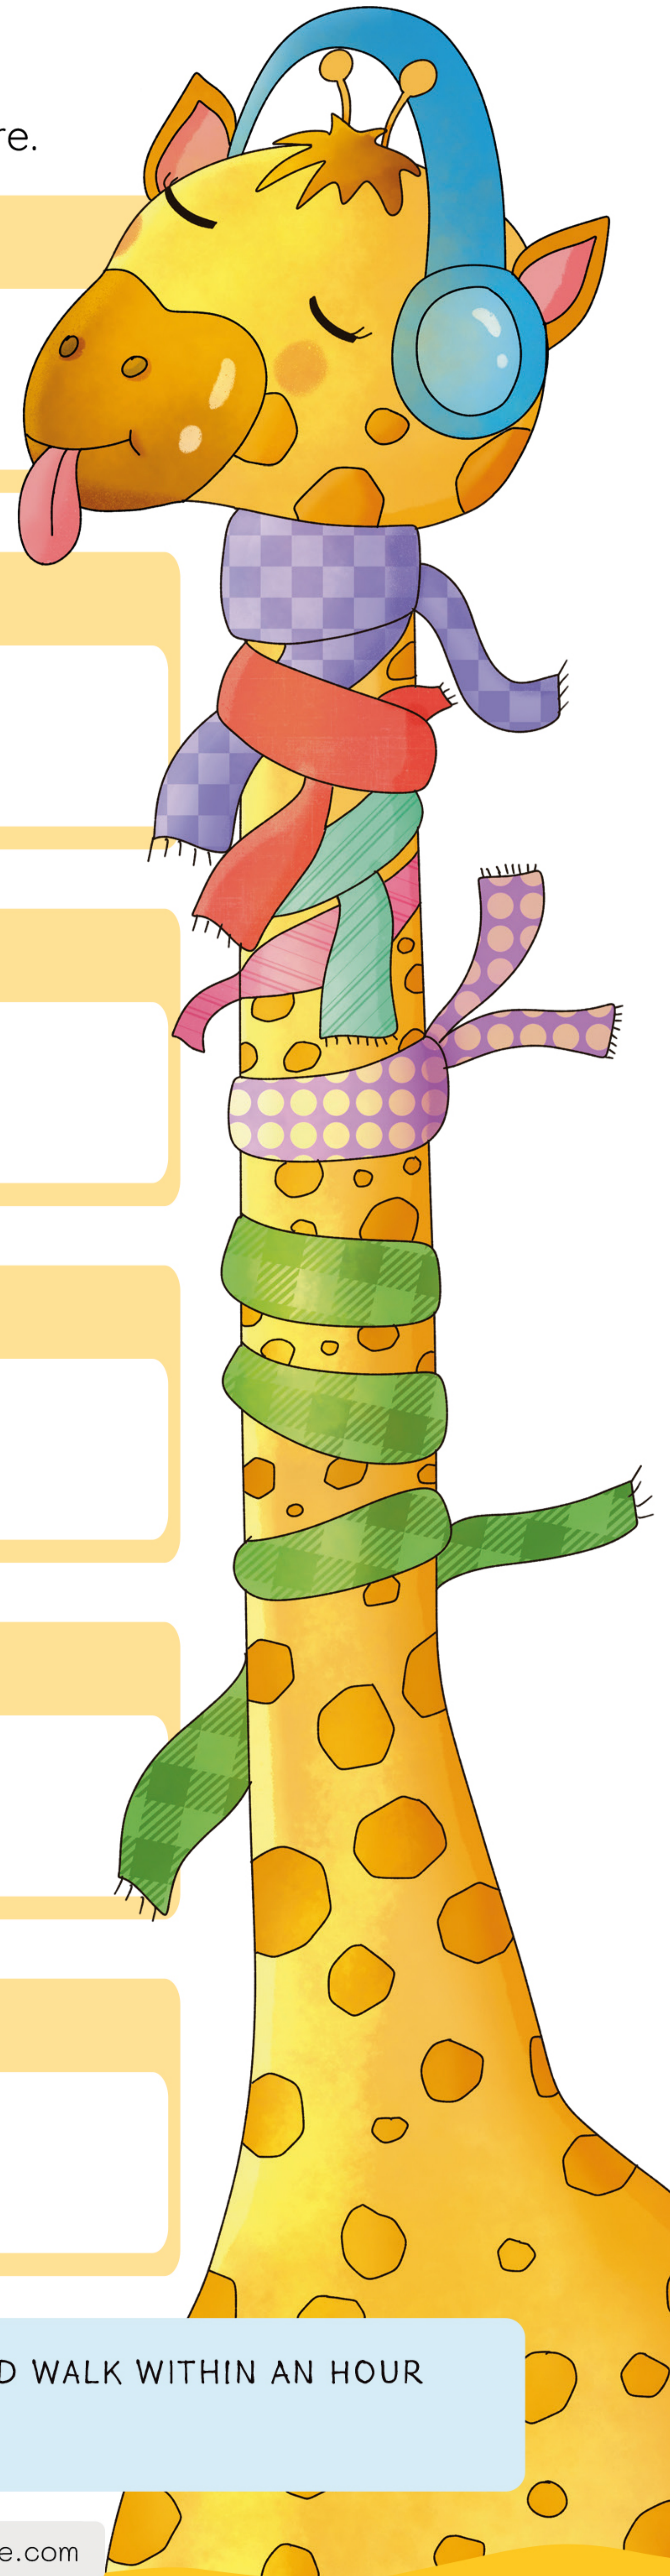

b How do you feel about giraffes?

c How do you feel about scarves?

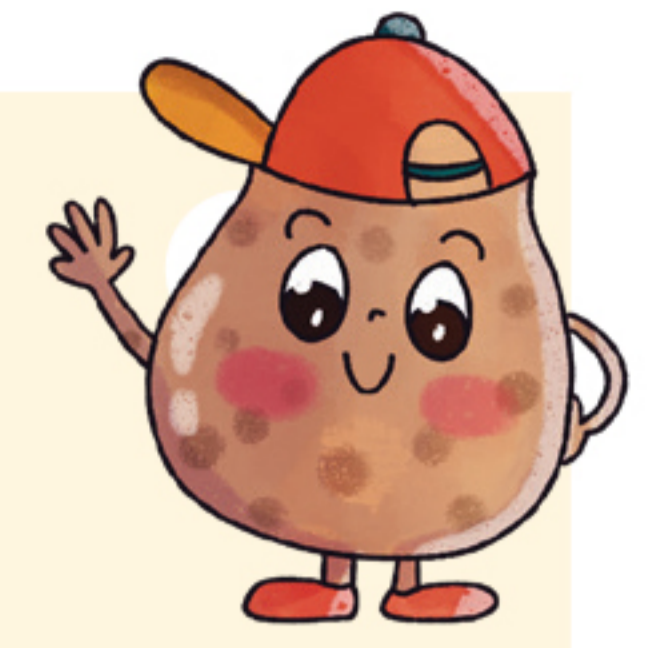

d How do you feel about yourself?

e How do you feel about your parent(s)?

f How do you feel about pizza?

KNOW MORE! BABY GIRAFFES, CALLED CALVES, CAN STAND AND WALK WITHIN AN HOUR OF BEING BORN.

ADJECTIVES

• INTRODUCTION TO ADJECTIVES	56
• PLACEMENT OF ADJECTIVES	57
• IDENTIFYING ADJECTIVES	58 - 59
• TYPES OF ADJECTIVES	60 - 61
• USING ADJECTIVES	62 - 65
• INTERPRETING ADJECTIVES	66
• FLUENCY ADJECTIVES	67
• SYNONYMS AND ANTONYMS	68 - 71
• SIMILES	72 - 74
• DEGREES OF COMPARISON	75 - 79

